RE: Appeal in the District-Criminal:

Dear Clerk:

I am in receipt of two letter's, one from the Supreme Court & another from the District Court. The letter from the Supreme was in reference to an inquiry about the notice of appeal that was supposedly been filed into the district Court.

In a letter from the District Court was forwarded to me on 10/17/06, the District Court letter, it stated that case was closed on 02/10/06 in the aforementioned civil matter 1:05-0815-SLR Crawford v. Carroll.

The notice of appeal was filed in this matter but was not intent of applying for certificate of appealability in this civ. matter but, it was filed in the matter of my criminal case in the Superior Court in New Castle County by The Hon. Judge Slight's in Cr. Ac. No. IN88-02-0845 I. D. No: 30800813DI.

Somehow, I believe this Court may have mis-construed this intent, and I need some clarify (clarification) if this appeal has... been the Court intentions to dismiss this appeal that was filed in the criminal mater from the Supreme Court inwhich he appeal, which should not be attribited to him because of the negligence of forwarding this appeal, which should should be condidered as being.. timely filed. Thanking you in advance for your cooperation on this urgent matter.

Respectfully Submitted;
